1 of 1 review helpful Quick clean and laced with amusing stories By Vicki M Stream of consciousness account of patient antics in a small regional hospital ER mostly centering around the negative outcomes of drinking too much acting stupid doing drugs and attempting to evade the law In other words we do the things we shouldn t do and wind up in the ER wishing we were somewhere else The language has been cleaned In the fifth edition of Real Stories from a Small Town ER a registration clerk in Ohio recalls crazy sad funny and just plain weird stories from encounters with real patients visiting the emergency room From a long night under a full moon to a patient being unexpectedly arrested when he encountered a surprise visitor at the nurses station these stories will take readers on a wild ride So jump on in to read about tips from the internet gone wrong
